

PENNSYLVANIA O. K.

The Democratic majority in Pennsylvania on Tuesday, the 11th of October, on the Congressional vote, is 1,958, and the average Democratic majority cast on the county tickets, including the Congressional vote, is 9,868! This magnificent victory, achieved in the face of the most unscrupulous and determined opposition ever before arrayed against them, has covered the Democracy of Pennsylvania with glory. The Abolitionists never dreamed of such a crushing defeat. The Democrats scarcely permitted themselves to hope for such a heart-cheering result. But the people, outraged and insulted by Mr. Lincoln's destructive negro policy, rose in their strength, and won this great triumph of truth and justice over fraud and despotism. Be of good cheer, freemen! On Tuesday next, the Old Keystone will give 30,000 majority for McCLINTON, PENDLETON, and the UNION!—Phila. Age.

THE PEOPLE ALIVE TO THE COUNTRY'S DANGER.

MEETING AT HAMPTON.

The McClinton Mass Meeting at Hampton on Tuesday evening was the largest held in this section of the country for years. Reading and the neighboring townships turned out in handsome style, while the enthusiasm for the Democratic nominees was unbounded. Before the organization of the meeting, a long procession, with music and transparencies, marched the streets, cheering and going up from all parts of the line. Several of the houses were brilliantly illuminated. The meeting, organized at Dicks' hotel, a beautiful stand having been put up for the speaking. The officers were:

President, John Lynch, Esq.
Vice Presidents, Henry Myers, Esq., Thomas N. Hicks, Esq., Southwick, Jacob Miller, Francis J. Wilson, Esq., John Ruff, Esq., Michael Alvord, Esq., John Henry Myers, Esq., Samuel Miller.
Secretaries, Samuel March, Joseph Wolf, Solomon Miller, Esq., Slaybaugh, John E. Little, Jeremiah Schriver, Wm. C. Beck, Esq., Daniel B. Eads, Esq., C. Neely, Esq., Jacob Lott, Esq., D. S. Puffer, Esq., J. R. Egan, Esq., Capt. Mando and H. J. Stable, Esq., the meeting adjourned with many cheers for McClinton, Pendleton and the Union.

Wm. McClean, Esq., addressed the McClinton Club of McClinton, at Baltimore School-house, on Thursday evening. H. J. Stable addressed the Mountjoy Club, at But's School house, on the same evening. Both good meetings.

A CARD.

I notice my name published as a supporter of the Abolition meeting on Saturday evening. I have no objection to such use of my name. I am a Democrat, and will vote for McClinton, as a matter of course. A. W. FLEMING, Gettysburg, Nov. 5, 1864.

For the Compiler.

It is the mission of Democracy to crush tyranny in every shape and form. Bear in mind, Democrats, it is your mission to crush tyranny. Remember that on Tuesday next, the 8th day of Nov., 1864, the great battle for liberty is to be fought. Remember, Democrats, that if Abraham Lincoln is re-elected, four more years more, the millions of slaves will be kept in their present position, and our property and even our lives will be completely in the hands of his minion tyrants, bearing the title of Provost Marshals. Remember their truths, Democrats, and go to the polls on Tuesday, and vote for your country and its liberty, and for your united votes, hurl that you will only from its present power, place Gen. McClinton in the Presidential chair; and then the dogs of the numerous battalions that are now doubly bared on thousands of our best citizens, will be thrown aside, and all the cruel in the shape of misery and wretchedness will be eradicated, and the millions liberated from these dreadful dungeons, and from their inmost souls, will bless and thank us for having worked their deliverance from their dark prisons. As soon as McClinton is inaugurated, and those prisoners set free, he will say to the South: Follow us, we have been fighting four long years, with great sacrifice of blood and treasure. Now let us stop fighting for a short space, talk the matter coolly over, and see if something can't be done to restore the Union without the further effusion of blood. Kinderhook, Nov. 2, 1864.

MORRIS TYRANNY.—Samuel J. Bricker, the son-in-law of Mr. Knapp, who lives on Mulberry street near Second, was a member of the 201st regiment from this place, but on account of sickness was unable to perform duty and was brought home sick and attended by physicians who declared that he was not fit to leave his bed. A few days later a guard was sent from Camp Curtin to the house, to demand the body of Bricker as a deserter. The women pleaded in vain, and the physicians remonstrated, in vain that he was too sick to leave his bed. He was taken from his bed, put in a chair, and taken to Camp Curtin. He lived but a few days. His wife, a beautiful, young and amiable lady, who was in such condition as to render her aid useless, received a message from Camp Curtin that her husband was dying. Before the conclusion of this melancholy tragedy his light had gone out and his spirit had gone to a just God to ask for an acquittal where justice still reigns. The corpse is now at home. He might have been still living and he might have survived the trials of disease, but the cruelty of this administration were too much for him, and the poor, brave, patriotic soldier died in the hands of his tormentors. Freeman, how long will you suffer this curse to under every eye of sympathy and affection? Go to the polls, we implore you, and vote for your freedom and mine, your rights and mine. God forbid that such tyranny should triumph in a free land!—Harrisburg Patriot & Union.

The Democrats contend for a RESTORATION OF THE UNION: the Republicans for the EMANCIPATION OF THE NEGROES. It is for the people to decide by their ballots on the 8th of November which they prefer—UNION, PEACE AND THE SALVATION OF THE COUNTRY; OR, PERPETUAL WAR IN A VAIN EFFORT TO EMANCIPATE SOUTHERN NEGROES.

The ignorance, incompetency, and corruption of Mr. Lincoln's administration have cost the country as much in three years as George Washington and all the succeeding Presidents, down to James Buchanan, were able to secure in eighty-seven years, although the nation paid for three years during that period. Can we afford to perpetuate this misrule?

VOTERS! If you are in favor of the Union as our forefathers made it, and as you have enjoyed it, until the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln, vote the Democratic ticket!

BE ON THE ALERT, DEMOCRATS!

As the election for President will take place on Tuesday next, we caution our friends to be wide awake! Recollect that the Abolitionists will resort to any means to gain the election, and we must be ready to meet them at all times. WORK ALTOGETHER, as before, and all will be well! Get all your votes out, and beware of fraud and deception!

Gov. Seymour, of New York, has issued a proclamation declaring that military interference at the polls in that State shall not be allowed—and ordering the sheriffs to prevent such interference by the full force of the law, if it should require the calling forth of the whole power of their districts. That has the ring of true metal.

Gov. Bramlette, of Kentucky, has also issued a noble proclamation of the same tenor.

Abolition electioneers must understand that offering a barrel of flour or any other bribe, for a vote, is an indictable offense.

They must also understand that threatening to stop the pension of a disabled soldier, simply because he wants to vote for McClinton, is indictable likewise.

These unprincipled demagogues may have the law rattling round their ears before they think of it. Was there ever a set of office-holders or office-hunters more desperate?

Whilst at the Hampton meeting, on Tuesday evening, a reliable gentleman told us that he had just read a letter from an Abolition soldier in the army, stating that he had voted SIX TIMES at the late election. Such "out-rages" the South has not a word to say about.

The Return Judges in Bedford, Fulton, Lycoming, and other counties, rejected returns of soldier votes, because not in accordance with the law passed by the Legislature on the subject.

We are told that the Republicans at Harrisburg have stopped betting on the State for Lincoln.

"The Last Hope."—Ex-President Fillmore, in his recent letter of September 28, says: "I look upon the election of General McClinton as the LAST HOPE for the restoration of the Union, an honorable peace, and the security of personal liberty."

The National Debt is now more than four thousand millions of dollars; on which there is being interest amounting at six per cent. to two hundred and forty millions of dollars annually, and as our largest income, in peaceful times, was only about seventy millions, a sum not sufficient for ordinary expenses, the enormous sum required must be paid by taxation—more taxation! It has grown gradually on us, as have all Mr. Lincoln's measures, and will continue to grow, for like causes must produce like effects! Elect Mr. Lincoln, and we shall have more debt, more drafts, more taxes and more war.

Heed Not Abolition Lies and Calumnies.

REMEMBER THE ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY, THE 8TH DAY OF NOVEMBER.

Forty THOUSAND FRAUDULENT VOTES were polled in Indiana to elect Morton, the Abolition candidate for Governor. Was that an "outrage," Mr. Smith, or not?

A dispatch from Washington to a New York Journal, of the 25th ult., says: All hands are busy about the next draft which will follow the November election. It will be a draft for men, and no exemptions will be tolerated. Grant and Sherman both call for men, and five hundred thousand will be required to fill up their ranks. The provost marshal is getting ready now.

The "State Guard" is in a state of non-progression, notwithstanding several gubernatorial proclamations, and will probably remain so until after the election. The argument of the Governor's official powers to mend the political prospect of Pennsylvania for Mass. Lincoln, is presumed to be the cause of State defence being so long and so voluntarily neglected. They draft, too, will come off, and the execution of the State Guard will be found to be a mere farce. Only virtuous troops and men are to be drafted for the State Guard!—Patriot & Union.

Freemont thinks Lincoln a failure. Lincoln thinks Freemont a failure. The poorest thinkers think right sometimes.

At the great McClinton Mass meeting held at Syracuse, New York, on the 26th ult., all the Vice Presidents, 120 in number, had formerly been self-opponents of the Democratic party. Their voice is "give us a change."

To whom it may concern!—The people propose to swap AXES for GRUBS.

VOTERS! If you are in favor of peace, happiness, national and individual prosperity, vote the Democratic ticket!

VOTERS! If you oppose taxation, and disapprove of corruption and despotism, vote the Democratic ticket!

VOTERS! If you have friends and relatives in the army whose life you prize and whose sentiments you approve, vote the Democratic ticket!

VOTERS! If you are opposed to negro equality, and in favor of the rights of white men, vote the Democratic ticket!

VOTERS! If you are in favor of your country, vote the Democratic ticket!

VOTERS! If you reverence the Constitution, which is the fountain-head of your individual rights, vote the Democratic ticket!

We issue this number of the Compiler on Saturday, two days earlier than usual.

THE MILL PROPERTY, situated in said township, on Opossum creek, and on the State road, about one mile north west of Benchesville, Adams county, consisting of three acres of land, and having one run of Burr and one pair of Chopping Stones. The water wheel is over-shoot and the water power good. The mill contains the most modern improvements, with good looms, and is in excellent condition. The grist mill is in good running order. The mill is situated in an excellent farm growing neighborhood and commands a large run of country custom. It is easy of access and convenient to markets. There is also a Farm containing 178 Acres of land, on which is erected a good 2-story house, with a good Frame Barn. There is also a Mill House, with a Stable, Spring-house, and other out-buildings. The farm is in a good state of cultivation, with a large proportion of meadow and timberland. There are three Orchards on the premises, two of them in a bearing condition and the other young and thriving. There is a large amount of excellent Pine and Oak timber on the property. This is a desirable property and will be sold on reasonable terms.

This property will either be sold entire, or divided to suit purchasers. It can be divided to advantage into Four Lots—make one tract of good Timber-land, and two tracts of good Farm-land, one of them containing 100 Acres, each well watered, and one having an Orchard on it. The other tract contains the buildings, with two good Orchards, and a sufficient quantity of timber.

Persons wishing to view the property will call on the subscriber residing thereon. Attendance will be given and terms made known by J. KESSEY COOK, Trustee.
